186th P-TA Active in Many Areas

In spite of threatening weather, a record crowd attended the 186th Street PTA sponsored carnival last week. The cooperation and good-will of both patrons and workers helped to make the event a success, it was reported.

Approximately $300 was realized from the carnival and will be shared equally by the PTA and the school.

Community Chest Chairman Mrs. Jack Farmer and Co-chairman, Mrs. Ronald Powell, announced that the Community Chest kick-off Monday, October 29th began with a television program at 10 a.m. The workers for 186th Street PTA displayed much enthusiasm in attending the meeting and receiving their kits for the drive.

Volunteers for this section were Mesdames K. Pond, Wm. Douglas, George Figuereda, Ann Heredia, B. B. Burrus, Stella Earley, Alice Davis, R. W. Abemathy, Claud Hill, Opal Bennett, James Gauley, Leona Bennett, Alice Ballard, Leo Melgosa, Felix Urias, A. M. Simms, Tillie Ramos, Harold Sprankle.

The 186th Street PTA membership drive finished with a total of 347 members, 98 men and 249 women. A cordial invitation is extended to those who might wish to join the PTA at any time this year.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE The membership drive contest was won by Mrs. Loftus' room for the lower grades and Mr. Baker's room for the upper grades. The children in these rooms will be given a party this week by the PTA.

Parents and PTA members were among those who viewed the traditional 186th Street school Halloween costume parade held Wednesday, October 31st at 1 p.m. on the school playground. Winners in this colorful event were Sandra Weisner and Raymond Clark from the lower grades and Joella Hill and Bob Brannon from the upper grades.

Goldfish in glass bowls were presented to Miss Buckley's room and Mr. Rawlins' room for having the most papers in the recent paper drive.
